

Our Mission...

"To foster opportunities that will promote unity, cultural identity and the presence of the Latina woman in the community."

Nominations for Board of Directors & Committees

Latinas Unidas is accepting nominations for our Board of Directors class 2011-2012 and supporting committees: Membership, Marketing, Website, and Newsletter.

We are an organization dedicated to uniting Latina women from different segments of the Greater Rochester Community who share common concerns and interests affecting women.

Candidates should support our mission and have a demonstrated track of working on behalf of women, especially Latina women and girls.

Latinas Unidas is specially seeking for individuals with skills/expertise in the following areas: marketing/media, computer literacy, secretarial officer, membership programs, website development/maintenance, and writing.

Interested candidates can send their resume and nomination form to:

Latinas Unidas
817 East Main Street
Rochester, NY 14605
