

Media Contact:
Daisy Rivera Algarin
(585) 284-8006 or 428-7711
media@LatinasUnidas.org

For Immediate Release
March 16, 2010

Food Network Star Chef Daisy Martinez from “Viva Daisy” show to host Iron Chef Competition at East High School, March 19

Latinas Unidas, with the support from East High School Academy of Hospitality and Tourism (AOHT) is presenting East High “Iron Chef” Competition. This is a cooking competition among five senior high students from the AOHT. Competing students will be assisted by their very own Sous Chefs, including Mayor Duffy and Superintendent Brizard.

The Academy of Hospitality and Tourism at East High School is offered as part of the small learning communities at East that emphasize professional skills training and hands-on experience to ensure that students have mentoring, guidance and training toward viable careers.

The event is on Friday, March 19th from 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. at East High School, 1801 E. Main Street, Rochester, NY. Please use Ohio Street Parking lot.

For more information, visit www.LatinasUnidas.org. RSVP with East High School by phone at 585-288-3130 x 4215.

Grand prize award of full scholarship to Monroe Community College.

Latinas Unidas is a non-profit organization dedicated to uniting Latina women from different segments of the Greater Rochester community who share common concerns and interests affecting women.